

NOW LAUNCHING

Join our journey ... cut risks, not OSH

THE OBJECTIVE OF THE SAFETY FIRST ASSOCIATION SINCE ITS INCEPTION
IN 1932 HAS BEEN TO EDUCATE MANAGEMENT AND WORKERS
ON SAFETY AND HEALTH PRACTICES,
MAINLY THROUGH PUBLISHING INFORMATIVE LITERATURE.

THE OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY & HEALTH PRACTITIONER'S COUNCIL (OSHPC)
IS STRUCTURED AS AN OUTREACH PROGRAMME OF THE SAFETY FIRST ASSOCIATION TO PROVIDE THE INFORMATION NEEDED BY THE OSH PRACTITIONER.

MEMBERSHIP OF OSHPC WILL ENABLE THE OSH PRACTITIONER TO ACQUIRE OHS KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND PRACTICES INFORMATION. IT WILL ALSO ENABLE THEM TO GROW WITHIN THE INDUSTRY, APPLY THEIR GAINED PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE AND CAPABILITIES IN THEIR WORKPLACES.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY & HEALTH PRACTITIONER'S COUNCIL – VISION & MISSION

The Occupational Safety & Health Practitioner's Council (OSHPC) is a body focused on providing Occupational Safety & Health Practitioners with an information and guidance resource to support growing their Knowledge, Skills and Practices to develop into competent and capable practitioners in their workplaces.

The Occupational Safety & Health Practitioner's Council has been established as part of a knowledge and practices outreach programme for OSH practitioners by the non-profit registered Safety First Association of South Africa.

The Safety First Association is the oldest occupational health and safety association in South Africa, founded in 1932 by Sir Ernest Oppenheimer and the Mayor of Johannesburg.

The Safety First Association's objective of promoting and spreading knowledge and methods of Safety and Health Risk Management is still ongoing through its bi-monthly published African-OS&H magazine, and now embarking on the OSHPC project.

Mission

The Occupational Safety & Health Practitioner's Council aims to promote Occupational Safety & Health Risk Management principles, practices and knowledge to OSH practitioners in southern Africa by

- Spreading knowledge of the principles and methods of Occupational Safety & Health Risk Management
- Encouraging and promoting effective safety and health practitioner interventions in the prevention and/or reduction of accidents/incidents, which lead to loss of life, injury or other losses in the workplace.
- Publishing and distributing empowering information that will support, advise and educate OSH practitioners to develop and grow, to become competent and capable practitioners.
- Monitoring and participating in influencing the impact of OSH standards and legislation.

Vision

The Occupational Safety & Health Practitioner's Council intends to continually make further significant contributions towards furthering the understanding and promotion of occupational safety and health risk management among the OSH practitioners in southern Africa, and thereby making the OSHPC a leading commentator for OSH practitioners on occupational safety and health risk management practices and issues.
